

I feel very strongly that the no-call list in Wisconsin needs to remain the way it is - I do not want the banking industry weakening what is a very good thing, as I believe it will pave the way for other businesses to again bother us with their sales calls.